Hey I Found A 20 Dollar Bill!!

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

I fingered the legal tender softly, rolling it between my fingers like a cigarette. My morality was begging me to return it from the man it had clearly been separated from. He was practically a hop, skip and a jump away from I was standing. But my hardened side, a recent addition to my personality, knew that nobody had seen me pick it up. In fact, nobody was on the street at all. So I ran. And that's really where my trouble began.

Most people would regard the moment where I realized that the twenty had suddenly turned into a fifty a stroke of extreme luck. To me, that would be a countdown.
